Why work for us?

- Tuition and salary pay during Corrections Officer Academy.
- Starting salary for a Corrections Officer Trainee is $31,169. Upon becoming a certified Corrections Officer, the salary is $34,489.
- Individual and family medical, dental, prescription, life, and vision insurance.
- Florida State Retirement, Special Risk — Earn 75% of salary at retirement. Special risk employees may retire after 30 years of service or reaching age 60 with full benefits.
- 204 hours of paid sick/vacation leave. Accruals start at hire, and accruals increase with longevity of service.
- Nine paid holidays.
- Short- and long-term disability insurance.
- Job satisfaction – More than 42% of our officers have been with the Division for more than 10 years!

Hiring process

Applications can be filled out online at www.volusia.org or in any Volusia County public library. On the website, click on "career."

Your application must be accompanied by scores from the Criminal Justice Basic Abilities Test for Corrections (CJ-BAT-COR) or verification of current FDLE certification. Contact the Daytona State College testing center at 386-506-3067 to arrange for testing. Test costs must be paid by the applicant, but will be reimbursed 30 days after the hire date.

Officer candidates undergo:

- Fingerprinting
- Interview
- Physical abilities test (PAT)
- Background investigation, including criminal history, neighborhood and employment verification
- Polygraph or computerized voice stress analysis (CVSA)
- Drug and tobacco screening
- Physical

volusia.org/personnel

CONSIDER CORRECTIONS

Corrections is a challenging, yet rewarding, career in law enforcement.

If you are dedicated to the safety of others and interested in a profession that offers a variety of benefits and promotional opportunities...

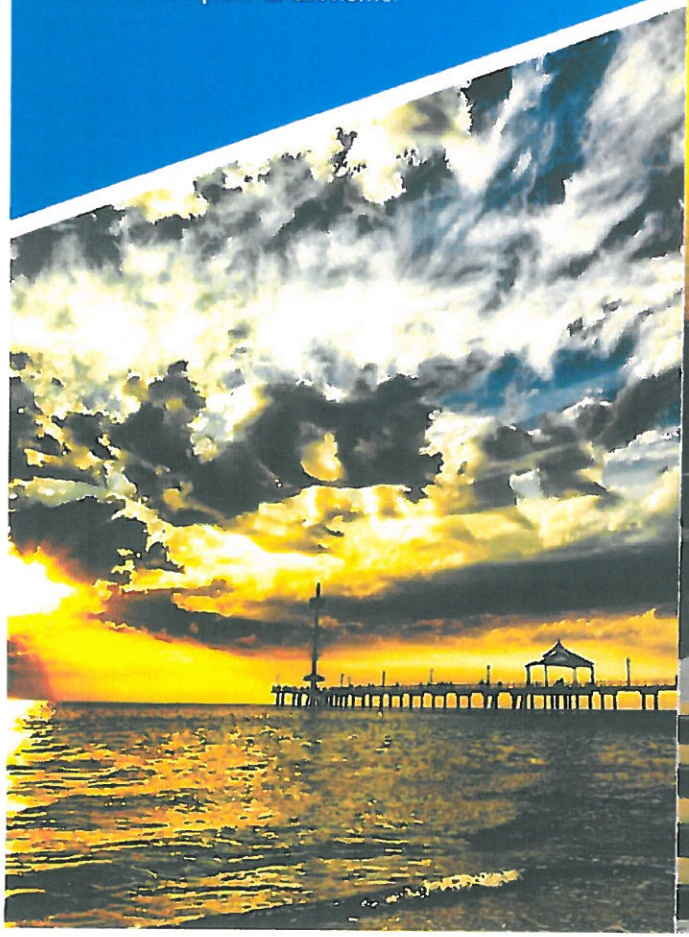
Begin your life-changing career today!

Volusia County
FLORIDA

Volusia County. Daytona Beach.

Volusia County is a popular tourist destination with more than 500,000 residents. It's known worldwide for its irresistible surf and 47 miles of Atlantic Coast beaches. Our annual events, which include the Daytona 500 and Bike Week, thrill many.

With 16 cities and towns, Volusia County offers abundant variety from recreation and fitness to ecotourism and culture. With a cost of living index below the national average, Volusia County offers something for everyone as a place to live, play and work... a place to call home.



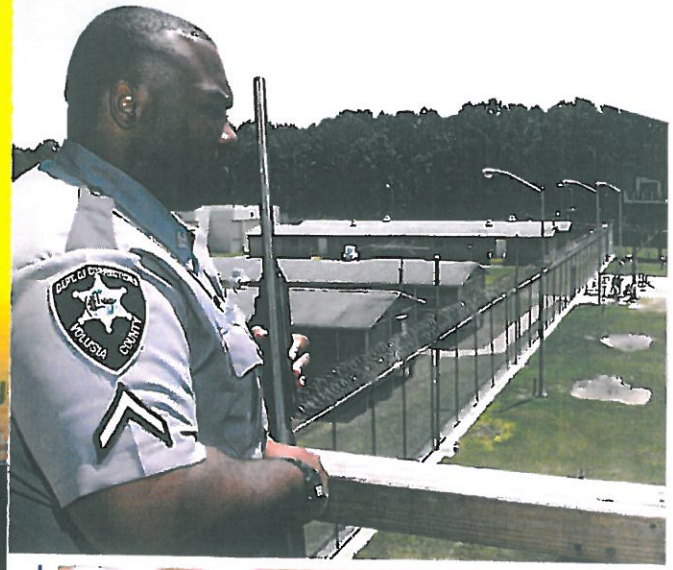
The Volusia County Division of Corrections is committed to building a professional workforce to serve and protect our community.

We want you!

Applicants must be:

- At least 19 years old
- A citizen of the United States
- A high school graduate or possess GED certificate that meets state standards
- In good physical condition
- Tobacco-free
- Of good moral character with no felony or misdemeanor convictions involving moral character, perjury or false statements, as outlined in Florida statutes

Applicants also must possess a valid Florida driver's license and meet vision requirements with correctable vision to 20/40.

Correctional Officers receive training in:


- Interpersonal skills
- Legal issues
- First responder
- Emergency preparedness
- Correctional operations
- Defensive tactics
- Firearms