

SOC is a premier provider of integrated security and mission support carrying out and enabling national security missions globally in support of the U.S. Government. With numerous corporate offices around the world, SOC stands ready to serve its broad clientele base. Our leadership draws from major international corporations and from public service. SOC balances its' capabilities and competencies with ethics and integrity. As a responsible steward of public and community interest, SOC also remains highly engaged with several international associations dedicated to improving the quality of life for others.

Explosive Detection Dog Handler (EDD)

Responsibilities:

- EDD is designated as Support (S)
- The EDD handler is required to maintain weapons qualifications, as outlined in this task order, with the Glock and the M4.
- Detect Explosive Materials and devices.
- Man Entry Check Points, Vehicle Check points and any other entry point to prevent unauthorized entry and to prevent unauthorized introduction of explosive devices or matter.
- Maintain K9 Training records to meet task order contract requirements.
- Perform other functions as directed by the Government.

Qualifications:

- U.S. Citizen.
- Certified in accordance with North American Police Word Dog Association (NAPWDA) National/State/provincial military or law enforcement agency standards as working K9 Handler.

A minimum of:

- Two years of experience as a Military or Law Enforcement K9 Handler.
- One (1) additional year of security related experience in Iraq/Afghanistan or any other high threat country.
- Experience can be gained in the employ of any national, State/Provincial, Local or commercial entities providing high threat protective services that requires skills similar to those outlined in the contract.
- Able to recognize K9 diseases, be familiar with hygiene requirements, and know the physical condition of the K-9. Certification documents shall accompany resumes.

Clearance Requirement:

Must be able to obtain an U.S. government secret security clearance

For more information, please visit. www.SOC-USA.com and click under careers for more information.

