Oath of Office

The oath you are required to take is almost identical to the oath US Army officers and enlisted personnel take. Accepting the oath is a serious matter; it demands that all appointees fully recognize they are undertaking solemn obligations and are pledging utmost loyalty to the United States. The oath is legally binding – violation can serve as a basis for criminal prosecution. As you read the oath you are administered, you become an official of our government. Conduct yourself commensurate with this noble assignment and serve proudly.

“I_ [state your name], will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic;

that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same;

that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion;

and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter.

So help me God.”

The Army Civilian Corps Creed formulates your value as a member of the Army team. Practice this creed every day of your working life, for yours is an extremely proud profession and your contributions are inestimable.

ARMY CIVILIAN CREED

I am an Army Civilian – a member of the Army Team.

I am dedicated to our Army, our Soldiers and Civilians.

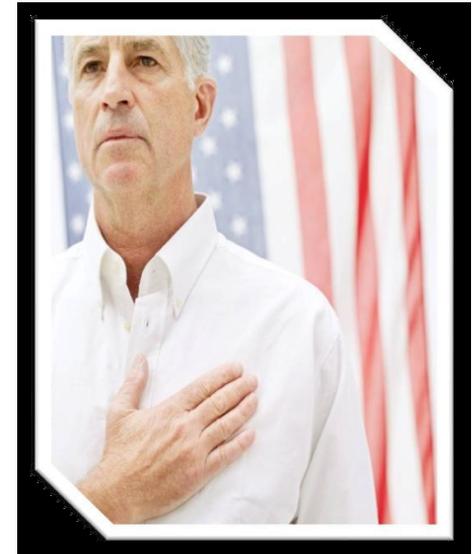

I will always support the mission.

I provide stability and continuity during war and peace.

I support and defend the Constitution of the United States and consider it an honor to serve our Nation and our Army.

I live the Army values of Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, and Personal Courage.

I am an Army Civilian.

THE EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

What is the Employee Assistance Program (EAP)?

The EAP is a benefit of employment for all Department of the Army Civilians. Program designed to help employees and their family members, whenever feasible, with problems that may affect their well-being and their ability to do their jobs.

What can the EAP do for me?

Employees may use the EAP to help manage issues in their work and personal lives.

The EAP will typically provide assessment, support, and, if needed, referrals to additional resources.

The issues for which EAPs provide assistance include:

- Substance abuse
- Safe working environment
- Emotional distress
- Major life events, including births, accidents and deaths
- Financial or legal concerns
- Family/personal relationship issues
- Work relationship issues
- Grief Support

Confidentiality:

Your visit to the EAP is confidential. Confidentiality about what you discuss is maintained in accordance with privacy laws and ethical standards.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

What We Do

The EEO program provides employees with a right and a procedure for redress in instances in which they have suffered discrimination.

* AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Affirmative Action is designed to correct the effects of past discrimination. It requires specific actions to recruit, employ, and promote qualified women and minorities.

* ROUNDTABLE PROGRAM

Employees with an informal complaint have the opportunity to receive mediation through the Roundtable Program. This program is an effective option to resolve complaints when open communication is needed.

* EEO COUNSELOR PROGRAM

The Army's EEO Counseling Program provides the mechanism for applicants and employees within the US civilian workforce to seek and obtain redress for discrimination at the informal level. The EEO Counselor is the first step in the complaint system. The counselor makes inquiries into the specific incidents of alleged discrimination.

* TRAINING

* DIVERSITY CELEBRATIONS

You have the right to file a complaint of discrimination with the EEO Office within 45 CALENDAR DAYS after the alleged act of discrimination.

We strongly recommend that you first seek resolution for perceived incidents of discrimination through your chain of command.
