Additional Information

Sensitive Items: Students will maintain personal accountability of their sensitive items from the time they receive them from their unit sponsor until the weapons are returned to their sponsors on the final day of the course. There will be two deliberate SI layouts per day of the course in addition to SI checks prior to initiating movement and upon arrival at each destination. Sponsors will secure their Candidates sensitive items from Camp Hinsch at 0700 on graduation day.

Walker Policy/Soldier Contact: Once a Soldier has been accepted into the course, there will be no visitation authorized. For emergencies, contact the student's Chain of Command or The Sabaulski Air Assault School Operations Office. Absolutely no personnel will be authorized visitation of Camp Hinsch during the course IAW TSAAS PRC Walker Policy, by exception only.

Graduation: Those who successfully complete the course will graduate on Day Fifteen of the course at the Sabalauski Air Assault School. TSAAS welcomes full unit participation at this event as we recognize those Soldiers who have demonstrated the leadership, physical & mental toughness necessary to successfully move on to the Ranger Course.

Meals: All non-meal card holders will be issued a field meal card from their S-1 prior to arriving at the course and must bring this meal card as part of their packet. Unit S-1s will complete all necessary administrative action required.

Medical Requirements/Sick Call: Candidates should arrive at the course with a complete Ranger School physical current within 120 days of the course start date. Medics will be on site at all times and will conduct daily checks of Candidates. Sick Call services will not be provided on site. Candidates must coordinate with their units through PRC Cadre to facilitate transportation to Sick Call if necessary. Candidates can miss a maximum of three (3) hours of training due to sick call before being administratively dropped from the course.

Course Drops: Candidates may be immediately dropped from the course for a number of reasons (Event failure, major safety violation, medical emergencies, etc.). If an immediate drop occurs, Cadre will contact the Candidate's unit to coordinate for pick up and the Candidate will be administratively out-processed. If a drop occurs outside of normal duty hours or on the weekend, the Candidate will be held at Camp Hinsch until contact with the unit is confirmed. Units should be prepared to pick up dropped Candidates immediately, even outside of duty hours. Candidates will be out-processed and released from the course upon the arrival of their sponsor.
