

Sr. Network Analyst

About the Job:

Working within a team environment performing daily management of firewall and other network changes providing daily management, troubleshooting, and support of networking related issues, establish and maintain relationships with internal and external users.

Implementing the necessary tools to proactively troubleshoot and where necessary assist and provide support to third parties to solve network connectivity problems.

Working in a team environment to manage the installation of products and resources to meet the needs and requirements of our WAN and LAN network based services.

Optimizing the availability of network system architectures to deliver cost effective improvements that in turn deliver tangible business benefits. Must also participate in a 7x24 shift rotation.

Maintains technical expertise in all areas of network and computer hardware and software interconnection and interfacing, such as routers, multiplexers, firewalls, hubs, bridges, gateways, etc. Deals with pressure and conflict decisively and effectively. Possesses excellent communication and presentation skills. Ability to see and read computer screens, concentrate for long periods, and remain in a sedentary position. Requires sitting for long periods. Ability to communicate via computer and telephone

Minimum Qualifications:

- HS +12 years experience, or AA/AS +10 or BA/BS +8
- To include experience as a Network Administrator
- CCNA or equivalent w/in 180 days of hire
- Security+CE at hire
- CEH within 60 days of hire
- Ability to obtain and maintain SECRET level clearance

INTERESTED:

Apply online: <https://careers-stg.icims.com/jobs/10974/senior-network-analyst/job>

Contact:

Evonne Cummins
520-226-3355 X4014
Evonne.cummins@stg.com