

Attention National Guard Members, Veterans and Transitioning Military:

To apply for this position visit <http://casy.msccn.org/JobSeekers/CreateAccount.html> < Caution-
<http://casy.msccn.org/JobSeekers/CreateAccount.html> > and Login or Register. Click on "Search Openings". Enter the Req # listed below in the "Auto req ID" field to search for the corresponding position.

Military Spouses may apply by logging in or registering here:
Caution-<http://msccn.org/JobSeekers/index.html> < Caution-
<http://msccn.org/JobSeekers/index.html> > Click on "Search Openings". Enter the Req # listed below in the "Auto req ID" field to search for this position.

Search for Req #: 162107BR - Safety Leader - Wilmington NC

This position is open until filled.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

This position is responsible for promoting a safe work environment for all plant employees. Duties include facilitating and communicating Safety programs and policies. The Safety Lead will drive plant culture towards continuous improvement in overall plant safety performance. He/she will develop, implement and enforce site specific programs to maintain compliance with laws, codes and regulations.

Ensure compliance with all plant, corporate and OSHA policies and regulations

Be a change agent to drive continuous improvement in overall plant safety performance through programs such as employee engagement, hazard recognition / elimination, behavioral based safety, etc.

Work with leadership to set annual targets for injury reduction, and drive necessary actions to meet or exceed targets

Maintain metrics of plant safety performance and provide monthly reporting

Develop, implement and track annual site safety plan actions

Develop and maintain plant emergency response plans and ensure appropriate training

Attend division / corporate safety meetings and calls representing the interest of the plant

Work with internal and external groups to coordinate plant S&H audits and evaluations / inspections, and ensure timely corrective action for discrepancies

Ensure effective delivery of all safety related training with compliance to all applicable plant, corporate and OSHA standards, and maintain all OSHA logs and required recordkeeping required by regulation

Ensure / lead investigation of work-related injuries in conjunction with supervisors / managers, along with action planning to prevent reoccurrence

Coordinate reporting, tracking, and trend analysis of workplace injuries when they occur and ensure corporate reporting standards are followed

Maintain existing SDS system and ensure new materials and products have appropriate SDS sheets and training

Perform analysis and recommend improvements to equipment and processes to improve safety and prevent accidents

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES:

This position will not supervise other associates.

EDUCATION and/or EXPERIENCE

Bachelor's degree in Occupational Safety and Health Masters preferred

Required Years and Area of Experience:

Minimum - 8 years of experience in an S&H role

Required Skills :

Project management experience
Excellent written and verbal communications / presentation skills
Extensive knowledge of S&H regulations
Experience with risk and statistical analysis
Computer Skills, Microsoft package and Sharepoint

Desired Skills:

Certified Safety Professional (CSP) preferred
S&H work experience in a production facility
Good time management and organization skills
Basic knowledge of environmental regulations

Soft Skills :

Demonstrated leadership skills
Motivated team player - ability to work in a team environment
Strong people skills; Able to interface effectively with all levels of the organization