

Budweiser of Clarksville is seeking Delivery Assistants!

Qualified candidates will possess the following skills:

- Capable of very heavy lifting for 8+ hours/day
- Able to learn and apply new skills
- Good attendance and punctuality
- Able to lift 60 lbs. repetitively
- Clean driving record and personal automobile insurance

The Delivery Assistant/Trainee is expected to aid the Class "A" CDL Driver in the execution of all delivery tasks, including unloading the product, rotation of stock, merchandising, cleaning, and more. The Delivery Trainee must maintain a driving record that is acceptable to the company and will learn the DOT regulations that he must follow. This position can lead to higher-level Delivery Team positions.

While working in this position, if you are identified as a good candidate for the Delivery Driver position, the company will help you obtain your Commercial Driver's License. This is physically demanding work due to the weight of beverage products and the volume of product that goes out for delivery each day.

Delivery positions are full-time, Monday-Friday, beginning at 5 a.m. and ending when all deliveries are completed. Employees are expected to stay until the work is completed. We offer excellent pay and benefits, including medical, dental, and 401(k) plans, paid vacation and personal leave, plus more.

To apply, please visit: www.handfamilycompanies.com and select "Careers" at the bottom of the page. Please apply for the one job that you are best qualified to fill. Applications are accepted via our website or by submitting a paper application at the TN Career Center at Clarksville. We do not accept applications at our company offices.
