NOTES: The NCO Academy recommends bringing $60.00 dollars (This is for TDY Soldiers).

1. The listed items of clothing/equipment are the minimum required while attending BLC Student's missing items or in possession of unserviceable items will be counseled and told to obtain the items. Failure to obtain the items after being counseled on a DA Form 4856 will be grounds for dismissal.
2. Soldiers attending BLC on a TDY status will coordinate directly with the NCO Academy S-3 for weapons. Quota Source Managers; if no prior coordination is made then weapons are the responsibility of the Soldier. TDY Soldiers will bring all items on this packing list; the 101st NCO Academy has no CIF.
3. The IPFU/APFU is required to have the NSN label. Commercially designed items are not authorized.
4. Sleeping bag/Sleeping system Soldiers bring what was issued.

5. Students may bring spandex (black or gray) for wear under the IPFU/APFU shorts. (Spandex will not be worn while conducting height and weight procedures)
6. Students issued the MOLLE FLC are not required to bring pistol belts, but must bring the complete vest to include ammunition pouches and canteen covers.
7. Alarm clocks are mandatory. (Cell phones will not be used as alarm clocks)
8. Cell phones are permitted in accordance with the outlined Cell phone policy in the Student Guide.
9. Glasses are not considered eye protection, only Army issued eye protection with inserts is authorized; (i.e. Wiley X, Sawfly, Oakley, etc.)
10. Boxers will not be worn with the IPFU/APFU uniform.
11. Bring enough personal items to sustain you through the entire course.
12. Student may bring additional items at their own discretion. (E.G. nomex gloves)
13. The socks — black or white — will be calf-length or ankle-length, and plain with no logos. Ankle-length socks must cover the Soldier's entire ankle bone
14. The beret will have a leather sweatband IAW AR 670-1, paragraph 3-2, section b (1).
15. Students attending BLC may go to CIF and get issued elbow and knee pads with a memorandum signed by their commander stating what class they are going to attend. Contact Ft. Campbell CIF at 270-798-6245 for details.
16. The ECWS Gortex will be worn IAW AR 670-1, paragraph 7-7, section (1) (b).
17. The ACU/OCP cold weather coat will be worn IAW AR 670-1.
18. These items are required when you "report" on Day Zero. (No STANO Devices on weapons)
19. All questions concerning this packing list can be answered at (270) 798-6865/4813.
