

BNSF Railway Seeks Military Electronic Technicians for the following position

Electronic Technician – Signal

Anticipated Close Date: January 23rd, 2013 : Anticipated Start Date: February, 2013

Work Location: Denver, Colorado : Pay: $71,000 Annually.

Duties: This position is responsible for installing, inspecting, testing, and maintaining train control systems, radio, radar, electronic and electromagnetic components. The duties and responsibilities in this posting are representative categories to be used in deciding whether to apply for the position. These general categories do not necessarily constitute an exhaustive list of duties of the position. IMPORTANT: To be considered for employment, applicants must successfully pass the required International Society of Certified Electronic Technicians (ISCET) Exam. For information about this exam (including study guides) please go to www.iscet.org. This exam will be administered on the day of Orientation and Testing to those candidates who receive an invitation. Knowledge of DC Theory, AC Theory and Ohm's Law, Power Supplies, Rectifiers and Batteries, Semiconductor Devices, Electronic Test Equipment, Circuits and Schematics, Modulation, Antennas and Microwaves, Digital Electronics, Integrated Circuits and Pin Placement, and Computer Basics.

ALREADY ISCET CERTIFIED VETS = HUGE PLUS

MUST apply NOW! online at www.bnsf.com/careers Once applied, contact the BNSF Military Recruiter John Wesley at john.wesley2@bnsf.com:

We are proud to be an EEO/AA employer M/F/D/V. We maintain a drug-free workplace and perform pre-employment substance abuse testing.

Background investigations include but are not limited to verification for the following: Social Security number, criminal history, employment, driving record, military and academic history